Dedication

--To the memory of one held in high esteem, not only by our nation, but by the leaders of the world--JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY. His was a life of faithful service to our country and all humanity. The thirty-fifth President of the United States left the shining example of kindness and unselfishness for all. "It is not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." It is to this memory that we, the 1964 Senior Class of Lane High School, respectfully dedicate this annual.

SENIORS

The page features a symmetrical, abstract geometric design. At the top, a large semi-circle is partially filled with a light gray texture. Below it, a trapezoid is centered, with its top edge aligned with the semi-circle's base. The trapezoid is divided into sections of light gray and white. A thick black horizontal band runs across the middle of the page, containing the word "SENIORS" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. Below this band, the design continues with a large, light gray trapezoid that tapers towards the bottom. Inside this trapezoid is a white rectangular frame. Within the frame is a black and white photograph of a graduation cap (mortarboard) with a tassel. The cap is positioned diagonally, with the tassel hanging down. The background of the page is a light gray, and the entire design is framed by thin black lines.

Class History

Early in the fall of 1960, thirteen green freshmen started to Lane High School to obtain an education. These green freshmen were: Jim Wylie, Loretta Alexander, Mike Kuder, Lois Dalton, Peggy Baucom, Fred DeMoss, Mary Beets, Ron Weatherbie, Bill Wheeler, Sally Willey, Dennis Harkins, Henry Harkins, and Sharon Oram. Melvin Schulz transferred from Rantoul during the year. Mrs. Welborn was our sponsor.

Starting our sophomore year we gained Danny Timblin from Parker. Bertha Timblin also joined our class at this time. Later we lost Danny Timblin. Our sponsor was Miss Marr.

At the starting of our junior year, there were eighteen members in the class of '64. Fred DeMoss left us during the summer, but we gained Mary Jones, Chester Leach, Eddie Schulz, and Fred Turley from Rantoul. Our sponsors were Mr. True and Mr. Gaddis. We presented our junior play "Take Your Medicine" with the help of our sponsors and Mrs. Wilhite.

Beginning the 1963-1964 school term there were twenty two seniors. Connie Hase, Bonnie Hase, and Kay Vining, from Richmond High School joined our class. We welcomed Pat Ball, Peggy Ball, and Linda Milward from Princeton, formerly from Rantoul, to our group. We lost Jim Wylie to the class of '65, Mary Jones and Mary Beets left us for matrimony.

Our class sponsors were Miss Finley and Mr. Laird, both of whom have helped us greatly in the production of our annual.

Senior Class Will

Dennis Harkins wills the following: his ability to run to any freshman who wants to try it; to the coming algebra class, his ability to work math problems, (which most likely won't help much); his ability to keep his mouth shut in class to Rocky Blackstone.

Richard Maloney wills the following: his "57" Ford to anyone who wants it (and anyone who is fool enough to take it); his ability to get along with Miss Finley to anyone who needs it; his ability to go to sleep in Mr. True's room to Joe Baucom; and his class ring to Juanita Hubbard, who already has it.

Ron Weatherbie wills his ability to go out with girls to the Junior boys who need it; his car to anyone who is foolish enough to take it; and his "old bottle" to John Chrisjohn.

Mike Kuder wills the following: his jumping legs to Tom, who will need them; his cross-country running to Dennis McIlvain; his big feet and big hands to Mike Oram; He will keep his intelligence and ability to get along with teachers for himself in college, where he will need it. He will also keep most of his knowledge of athletics for himself, in college.

Bill Wheeler wills his duck-tail to Phillip Stevens; his ability to play basketball to Davy Harkins; and his ability to pass tests to Jim Wylie.

Kay Vining wills her ability to do anything to anybody who can do something with anything she can do.

Bonnie Hase wills her gracefulness in girls' physical education class to Vickie Snow, who just might be able to use it.

Peggy Ball wills her cheerleading outfit to Eldon Stottlemire; and her ability to keep quiet to Sharon Wylie, because Sharon needs it!

Linda Milward wills her ability to get along with others to Romona Hubbard hoping that she will use it; her giggle to Diane Medlen hoping it will get Diane in as much trouble as it did her.

Connie Hase wills her good looks, good grades, and sparkling personality to Phyllis Babb; her ability to get in trouble in class to Debbie Williams.

Melvin Schulz wills the following: his cigarettes to Donna Lash, who already has more than she needs; his height to Lynn Betz; his chewing gum to Miss Finley; his ability to get along with the teachers to Gary Dennis, who really needs it.

Fred Turley wills the following: his chair in biology to anyone who is foolish enough to sit there for two years; his ability to get along with the teachers to Lloyd Willey; his enthusiasm to come to school to Darroll Taylor (who doesn't need it); his can of beer to Eldon Stottlemire, who wouldn't know what to do with another one.

Henry Harkins wills the following: his ability to do math to his sister, and she could make good use of it; his ability to get along with the teachers to Lyle Brown; his ability to r-u-n a long time and not get very far to Jim Reeves, who has a good reason to do so; his ability not to go steady to Mike Ladd; to the Freshmen, he leaves the hopes for a new building in which to finish high school.

Pat Ball wills her good looks to Connie Beets; her ability to listen to jokes to Donnie Stottlemire; her business law grades to Eddie Schulz; and her chewing gum to Carlos Cole, for business law only.

Bertha Timblin wills the following; her ability to baby sit to Jane Weatherbie, who is always busy with something else; her ability to make mistakes in typing to any one next year; her ability to catch some unlucky fellow in Garnett, to Sharon Wylie; her charm to Miss Finley; and her curly hair to Mr. Redeker, who needs a few curls.

Eddie Schulz wills his good looks to Mr. Laird, (it would be a change); and his height to Mrs. Eades who needs it to "look down" on her students.

Chester Leach wills the following: his ability to get along with Mr. True to Tom Kuder; his ability to run cross-country to Roy Johnson; his profanity to Pat McDaniel (who does pretty well without it!); and his class ring to Maxine Needham, who already has it.

Sally Willey wills her ability to study, made good grades, and not get kicked out of classes to her brother, Lloyd; her height to Mr. Redeker (who could use the lack of it); her volleyball ability to Anna May Rhodes; her blue eyes to Dennis Stiffler.

Loretta Alexander wills her freckles to Miss Keith; her ability to play the saxophone to Richard; her curly hair to Kenny Turley; and her quiet, timid ways to Mr. Scheve.

Lois Dalton wills her red hair to Janie Kelly; her ability to blush to Mr. Erisman, who doesn't need it; and her personality to Leonard Burnett.

Peggy Baucom wills her grades to Dave Worrell; her mathematical abilities to Mary Dee who will not need it (as treasurer of the Crusaders).

Sharon Oram wills her cheerleading ability to Leota Schulz; her ability to keep her mouth shut in class to Bill Cole; her ability to talk a long time and not say anything (other than putting her foot in her mouth) to Jim Chambers.

The Class Prophecy

It is now the year of 2014. This being the Golden Anniversary of the Lane Graduating Class of 1964, we have planned the biggest society event of the year. Since one of our former classmates, Lois Dalton, has become the first lady President of the United States, we have decided to hold our reunion on the east lawn of the White House.

Bertha Timblin arrived earlier than the rest of the class in order to have plenty of time in which to prepare her acceptance speech of the Nobel Peace Prize.

Our next arrival was Madam Snifflepuss, the former Kay Vining, the first lady of Viet Nam. Madam Snifflepuss has accomplished something which few other United States Citizens have - that of becoming the first-lady of a foreign country.

Next arriving were Dennis and Henry Harkins, the first colonels of the United States Space Force. Arriving with them as a passenger on their ship was Eddie Schulz, an Interplanetary diplomat.

Bill Wheeler has finally received his first vacation in 45 years of continuous service as head of the F.B.I. His traveling companion is Linda Milward, the warden of Alcatraz Prison. She has diligently maintained her sincere and all important post, even though the prison has been closed for 51 years.

As a special treat, Chester Leach, President of the National Red Hot Association, has brought each member of the class of '64 a 10 lb. bag of red hots. This naturally thrilled each and every member, because we had not forgotten how much we enjoyed devouring bags of red hots during English class.

President Dalton introduced a Bill on Price Reduction of Food for our reunion, to Congress. This, naturally caught the attention of Senator Fred Turley, who has the record for the longest filibuster in the Senate -- 13 days.

This bill also aroused the interest of Pat and Peggy Ball, who are the proprietors of a world famous chain of grocery stores, which are especially known for their MEATBALLS.

It is amazing how well our class has stayed together in their business associations. Melvin Schulz, sole owner of a horse and cattle ranch in U.S.S.R., is supplier of the meat for the Ball's MEATBALLS, and also raises the stock for the World's largest rodeos. The final approval for this stock comes from Ron Weatherbie, three times World Champion-All-Round Cowboy. We understand, because of his unusual-feat, he has won three gold buckles. It is reasonable well understood that he has no trouble keeping his pants up.

At first, we thought it peculiar to see a grown man dribbling a basketball down the sidewalk, but, then we recognized him as Mike Kuder, coach of the Harlem Globe Trotters.

Our next classmate to arrive was Sharon Oram. She has never married, though she has had many opportunities, for she is a landlady of a first class Bachelor's Home. One of her most famous tenants was Richard Maloney, dean of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

We were fortunate to have for our entertainment, both an orchestra and jazz group. First on the entertainment schedule, was the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, led by Miss Peggy Baucom. We had hardly caught our breath from the inspiring music of Peggy's orchestra, when that internationally known jazz group, the Pine Cones, organized by Loretta Alexander and Sally Willey, made their presence known by playing the nation's number one tune, "O' Those Golden Lions. "

The last to arrive were Bonnie and Connie Hase, better known to the public by their stage names, Matida Hopenhollerzine and Maude Swigglehiener, who have just completed their one-hundred-million-dollar-movie, "Delilah versus Cleopatra". Since the start of the picture, 10 years ago, they have highly publicized it by their 17 marriages and divorces (between them).

Our reunion was the biggest society flop since Adam and Eve. It was mutually agreed that this floppy event ended all too soon. The reunion was brought to a close by the class singing the "Alma Mater" with the combined accompaniment of the Philharmonic and Pine Cones.

All School Play

The all school play, "A-Feudin' Over Yonder," was a humorous Hillbilly play from the Ozark Mountains. The plot revolves around the Popoff family and the Fry family who have been feuding for years because one of the Popoff boys said he going out to shoot an old skunk one day and accidentally shot Paw Fry instead. Periodically Mountain Maggie a legendary character who travels around the hills nursing the sick must come to patch up someone hurt in the feud. Rosie Belle Fry, being handy with a gun, takes the only unattached male in the hills from under her sister Emmy's nose. Emmy, who'd like to get "hitched," decides she'll end up as an old maid if she doesn't get one of the Popoff boys. But how can she marry someone with whom her family is having a feud? She enlists the aid of Mountain Maggie, who's tired of tending to victims of the feud, to put an end to it, Mountain Maggie, wise in the ways of human nature, convinces Maw Fry and Pappy Popoff that some plain sugar water she gives them is a "love potion" which will make them fall in love. They are tired of being lonely and have just about decided to marry and end the feud, when Rosie Belle arrives with the news that it was all a trick. Once more the feud is going full force. In the end, of course, the feud is ended and everybody is happy, but not before there are quite a few merry mixups and rib-tickling situations.
